FORD'S THEATER.-MISS Ada Webb to-night takes a benefit at Ford's, and in order that all may enjoy a real hearty laugh, "Pocahontas" is announced as the play. The evening's enter-All Work," in which the Webb Sisters will appear in three characters. Miss Ada Webb is a great favorite here, and will no doubt have a full house on the occasion of her benefit. GEOVER'S THEATER.-This is a benefit night also at Grovers, Miss Lucille Western being the recipient. This is also her farewell benefit. and she will appear as the "Jewish Maiden," in "Leah the Forsaken," a play in which for the past week she has won the most unbounded applause.

CANTERBURY .-- At this resort the performance never fails to be attractive and interesting, and Manager Sinn's efforts to please his patrons are meeting with the reward of crowded houses nightly. Yesterday afternoon and evening the crowd was so immense that Mr. Sinn was obliged to stop the sale of tickets long before the commencement of the performance. A varied entertainment will be given this evening, and the house will no doubt be crowded as usual.

WYMAN will to-night give another entertainment of magic and ventriloquism, and will be sure to make fun for all who may visit Odd Fellows' Hall. Wyman has many new features which he nightly introduces-among them, the Dancing Babies LARCENY CASES .- Last Wednesday F. C. White, Joseph Ostwald, and Henry Morton, alias Skinner, alias Newman, who had been arrested by Detectives Donaldson and Bigley, of the Metropolitan Police, upon various charges of larceny, and held for a hearing, were brought before Justice Clayton for trial at 1 p. m.

The first charge was against White and Ostwald, for entering the store of M. Cox, on Bridge, near High street, Georgetown, and stealing from the drawer a sum of money, amounting to grand larceny.

J. W. Horchell, clerk of the store, was sworn, and testified that on the 17th in instant the accused entered the store together. Witness was called to the rear of the store, and as he started Ostwald sprung upon the counter and took a seat near the money drawer. Two gentiemen, one named Finnecomb, and the other. a customer, name not remembered, were in the store. In a minute or two witness returned and discovered that the accused parties had lett; the money drawer had been pulled out and the money taken. Witness followed after and had White arrested by a policeman; but White showed papers satisfying the policeman that he was a detective under Capt. Scheetz, and unsettling his own suspicion, and White was not detained at that time.

Detective Donaldson testified that by order of Assistant Superintendent Reed he got an order from Capt. Todd to take Ostwald, then in Forrest Hall prison. Took Ostwald from the prison and put him on a street car. While in the car Ostwald admitted that he stole $51 from Horchall, and that White was with him. White was arrested the succeeding day by witness and Detective Bigley. White said that Ostwald was a deserter, and he was in company with him trying to get from him information of some importance. Detective Bigley testified that Ostwald said in his presence that he (Ostwald) stole the money from a store in Georgetown. That at night he visited the house of Eliza Foster, on 13th, near e' street; that he drank wine there, and gave $1: to White. Eliza Foster testified that she knew all the prisoners; they were at her house about the time alleged. They drank wine there, and gave witness $4. Ostwald did not appear to be under arrest. White and Skinner went away, and left Ostwald there by himself, and he stayed Maggie Morgan testified that she saw the prisoners and a companion at Miss Foster's. Ostwald stayed all night, and next morning he gave witness $5. Ostwald gave $4 for wine during the night. Justice Clayton decided to hold Ostwald for court, and White for further hearing in this

The second charge was against White, for stealing a coat and pants from Felix Khan.
Felix Kahn identified the coat and pants as his property, and said they were stolen from his private room, on or about the 18th instant.

Don't know who by.

Detective Bigley testified that he and detective Donaldson went with a search warrant to White's room, and there found the coat between two mattresses, and the pants in a carpet-bag. Justice Clayton postponed this case for turther hearing, with the other, on Wednesday

The third charge was against Henry Morton, alias Skinner, alias Newman, for stealing a military coat from A. Strauss, on or about the 17th instant

S. Heilner, sworn.—Is employed in the store of A. Straues. Knows all the parties—Morton, White and Ostwald. They came to Strauss's store together. Ostwald wanted a shirt collar. and while witness was trying to snit Ostwald with a collar, Morton went away. Witness believed the coat to be Mr. Strauss's property, but could not be positive, as the private marks were removed.

Detective Bigley testified that when Morton was arrested he (witness) questioned him about his clothes. Morton replied that he had no clothes, not a change. Witness then went to Mrs. Tilghman's and asked Kate Seymour if Morton had not left clothes with her. She said he had, and produced them, and among them was this coat.

Kate Seymour testified that Ostwald and Morton came to Mrs. Tilghman's. Ostwald gave the coat to Morton, and Morton gave it to her to keep till Ostwald came for it. The Justice decided to send this case to court.

The examinations having ended, Justice Clayton made out commitments for all the prisoners. Ostwald and Morton for court; and White for further hearing. In the meantime, opportunity was offered the latter to get ball. If all should give ball, they would still be held by the military authorities. White having been acting as a military detective; Ostwald admitting that he is a substitute deserter, and Morton suspected of being a deserter. All will receive a thorough examination.

GRAND LARCENIES .- Alice Pleasants was arrested last Wednesday for stealing a lady's silk cloak, a lawn dress, and a child's worked dress from Jos. F. Shillenn. A portion of the articles have been recovered, and it is probable that the remainder, with other stolen goods, will come to light. The arrest was made by Officer Noonan, of the Third Ward, and the prisoner was sent to jail for hearing, by Justice Thompson.

Officer Fuse, of the Third Ward, arrested Joseph Deane Wednesday evening for the larceny of a lady's muff from the store of P. Cohen. No. 460 7th street. The must was recovered and identified as the one stolen. Deane was sent to jail for court by Justice Thomp-

THE ORDER OF NINE EYES.-Last night the Order of Nine Eyes partook of a supper at Hawlett's Woodbine House, 4% street, which was attended by about twenty persons, including several guests, who were initiated before leaving into the mysteries of the mysterious order. The head of the table was taken by the Great Tycoon, assisted by the Great Warrior and Amphibio in the center, and a promineut citizen at the foot, and enjoyed themselves hugely. Several speeches were made during the evening by Dr. Davis, of the 5th Wiscousin, and others. The day was celebrated as the birthday of the "Tycoon," which comes on all convenient occasions.

SECOND WARD STATION CASES .- Jacob Delany, assault and battery, Margaret Diggs, larceny; James Dunn, drun! James Jarden, disorderly; David Neil, do.; dismissed. Rufus Lewis and S. T. Shaddricks, fighting; George Roberts and Jno. Roberts, disorderly; military. Frederick Walder, drunk and disorderly and carrying weapons; held for a hearing. Pat'k Kenney, disorderly; $1.58. Alex. WORKING HOURS AT THE ARBENAL. The workmen at the Washington Arsenal have, during the present season, been working from seven o'clock in the morning to sundown, while the workmen on private work in the city have been working on the old rules, commencing work at an hour by sun. It seems that they have been worked at these hours because it was thought that the bill known as the "Grimes Bill," fixed their hours at ten per day. On Tuesday last, the workmen, through a committee, presented a petition to the popelar commander of the post, Capt. Benton, asking a restoration of the old rule, and after examining the laws bearing on the case, he decided that the Grimes bill did not apply to their case, and promptly issued an order for the hours to be changed to an hour by sun and sundown, with an hour at noon for dinger.

ANOTHER MAN ENTIRELY.-We suppose nobody would imagine for a moment that the excellent police constable for the Seventh Ward, Robert Magee, was the "R. W. Magee" named in the police reports for the tenth precinct as charged with horse-stealing, but to prevent any possible misconception, we will state that it is another man entirely.

FOURTH WARD STATION CASES .- John Bird, drunk; $1.58. John Wood, larceny; iall. Stephen Casey, unisance; for hearing. Michael Gannon, drunk and disorderly; $1.58. Wm. Roberts, drunk, dismissed. Michael Hay., do. $1.58. Augustus Nelson, do. military. George W. Tarr, do.; $1.58.

ARRESTED .- Brown Dawson, a deserter from Company C. 155th Pa. Volunteers, was arrested Wednesday as a deserter, by Captain Scheetz. James Lloyd, Patrick Hickey and Hugh Kelly, supposed deserters, were also arrested and confined in the Old Capitol.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Danscrons and Deadly Frand.—The Agent here for Hostester's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, the great American Tonic, Alterative, and Restorative, has received positive proof that certain unprincipled liquor sellers are vending, under the name of that popular preparation, and out of bottles that originally contained it, their own vile alcoholic compounds; thus injuring or attempting to injure the reputation of it, their own vile alcoholic compounds; thus injuring or attempting to injure the reputation of the Bitters and imperiling the health and lives of the community. If the arm of public justice is long enough to reach any of these men, they will not be permitted to carry on their black traffic with impunity, for the law will be worked against them. Thousands of dollars have been expended in the United States, by the proprietors of the Bitters, for the purpose of protecting the masless. Bitters, for the purpose of proteoting themselves and the public against similar tricks Then they succeeded in making examples of the offenders and they hope to do so here. It is infamous that the pame of the most effective preventive of disease at present known, should thus be made a cover for the diseasemmination of polson. For the only infal ible cure for Dyspepsia and every species of indigestion, stomach-destroying and brain maddening compounds are sought to be substituted. The public are requested not to purchase anything purporting to be Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, of irresponsible and untrustworthy persons. Sold by Druggists and dealers generally every-
